BOSTON, March 11.

TUESDAY last being the Anniversary of the melancholy fifth of March, 1770, when Messrs. Gray, Maverick, Caldwell, Carr, and Attucks, were killed by a Party of Soldiers in King-street: The Bells of the several Congregational Meeting-Houses were tolled from twelve o'Clock at Noon till one. In the Evening there was a very striking Exhibition at the House of Mr. Paul Revere, fronting the Old North Square, so call'ed; at one of the Chamber Windows was the Appearance of the Ghost of Christopher Seider, with one of his Fingers in the Wound, endeavouring to stop the Blood issuing therefrom; near him his Friends weeping: At a small Distance a monumental Pyramid, with his Name on the Top, and the Names of those killed on the 5th of March round the Base; underneath the following Lines:

Seider's pale Ghost fresh-bleeding stands,
And Vengeance for his Death demands.

In the next Window were represented the Soldiers drawn up, firing at the People assembled before them, the Dead on the Ground, and the Wounded falling, with the Blood running in Streams from their Wounds: Over which was wrote Foul Play. In the third Window was the Figure of a Woman, representing America, sitting on the Stump of a Tree, with a Staff in her Hand, and the Cap of Liberty on the Top thereof, one foot on the Head of a Grenadier lying prostrate; her Finger pointed to the Tragedy.

The whole was so well executed, that the Spectators, which amounted to some Thousands, were struck with solemn Silence, and their Countenances covered with a melancholy Gloom. At nine o'Clock the Bells tolled a doleful Peal, until ten, when the Exhibition was withdrawn, and the People all retired to their respective Habitations.

An Oration, containing a brief Account of the Massacre; of the Imputations of Treason and Rebellion, with which the Tools of Power endeavoured to brand the Inhabitants, and a Dissertation upon the Nature of Treasons, with some Considerations on the Threats of the British Ministry to take away the Massachusetts Charter, was delivered on the Evening by Dr. Young, at the Factory-Hall, being the Place where the first Effort of military Tyranny was made within a few Days after the Troops arrived.

March 14. In the Ship Boscawen, Captain Robson, from London, arrived here last Friday, came over his Majesty's Commissions, appointing the Honourable Thomas Hutchinson, Esq; Captain-General and Governor in Chief in and over the Province of Massachusetts-Bay; the Honourable Andrew Oliver, Esq; Lieutenant-Governor; and the Honourable Thomas Flucker, Esq; Secretary of the said Province.

On Monday last Mr. Flucker's Commission was read, and he was sworn in Council.

This Day his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, the Members of his Majesty's Council, the Judges of the Superior Court, with the Gentlemen of the Bar, in their Gowns, the Officers of the Militia in their Uniforms, and many other principal Gentlemen, waited on his Excellency the Governor, at the Province House, and about One o'Clock walked in Procession to the Town-House, being preceded by a Company under Arms, composed of the non-commissioned Officers of the Regiment of Militia of this Town, and led by Captain Dawes, and being followed by the Troop of Guards under the Command of Colonel Phips.---His Excellency, and the Gentlemen who attended him, went into the Council-Chamber, and the Troop of Guards and Company of Militia, marched into King-street, where was a Detachment of the Artillery under Lieutenant Trott.---His Majesty's Commissions to the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor were then read in the Council-Chamber, and the usual Oaths administred. While the Commissions were reading, the Guns were fired from his Majesty's Ships in the Harbour, under the Command of the Honourable Commodore Gambier, from the Batteries in Town, and from Castle William. Whilst several Loyal Healths were drinking in the Council-Chamber, there were regular Firings by the Troop of Guards, the Train of Artillery, and Militia Company, in King-street.

The Honourable the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs have been pleased to appoint Mr. Thayer to the Office of Tide-Surveyor, for the Port of Philadelphia, in the Room of Mr. George Ross, who has resigned.

Last Friday Morning came on before his Majesty's Superior Court of Judicature, &c. now sitting for the County of Suffolk, the Trial of Charles Bourgatte (commonly called the French Boy) for wilful and corrupt Perjury. The Indictment found against him by the Grand Jury, set forth the Substance of his Testimony at the late capital Trial of Edward Manwaring, Esq; (his Master) John Monro, &c. for the supposed Murder of Crispus Attucks, &c. on the 5th of March last, and concluded with an Allegation that the whole was false and malicious, and that so the said Charles was therein guilty of wilful, malicious, and corrupt Perjury. The Accusation of the above mentioned Persons, was grounded upon a pretended firing out of the Custom-House Windows that Evening, flatly and wickedly sworn to by the said Bourgatte.------At his Arraignment the Prisoner pleaded not guilty, but when set to the Bar for Trial, signified his desire to retract that Plea, and throw himself upon the Mercy of the Court: The whole Bench however, apprehending, as it was a Cause of popular Expectation, that the Verdict of a Jury might be most satisfactory to all Parties, thought fit to hold him to his first Plea; accordingly a Jury of Twelve was impannelled and sworn, who, upon full Evidence of the Fact from the Testimony of divers Witnesses of undoubted Credit, corroborated by the voluntary Confession of the Prisoner, returned their Verdict, without going from their Seats, GUILTY.

The Boy in Excuse for himself urged nothing, but that he was advised to it by a Man who treated him well, and promised him he should not suffer for it.

March 18. At the Town-Meeting last Tuesday, was read an elegant and pathetic Letter from the famous Dr. Lucas, in Dublin, in Answer to One sent him by the Committee appointed to transmit the Account of the Massacre to Europe. In this Letter the Doctor sympathizes with his American Fellow-Sufferers, and enumerates so many Instances of military Barbarity, Insolence and unbounded Licentiousness, as demonstrates that Law is the Will of the Ministry for that Kingdom. He laments the Ignorance, difference in Religion, and consequent Want of Unanimity in the People, which render them an easy Prey to any Kind of Force that would enslave them; professes a high Esteem for America, and still hopes the unanimous Efforts of her wise and virtuous Children will have much Effect towards a general Restoration of constitutional Liberty.

Extract of a Letter from the Right Honourable the Countess of Huntingdon, received a few Days ago by the December Packet.

SIR,

"I can't express how much I feel myself obliged by your most kind Attentions shewn to me in communicating, with so much Tenderness and Respect to dear Mr. WHITEFIELD, the Account of his having fallen asleep---Thirty Years very intimate Friendship with him must make it a severe Stroke to all the remaining Self-Love that is found in his Friends: I loved him, and highly honored him, and this from the fullest Conviction that an honester Man, a more faithful Minister of the Gospel, and One so highly favoured of GOD, I have never known, and this through and to the End of his blessed Pilgrimage on Earth."

NEW-YORK, March 11.

Monday last his Excellency the Governor was pleased to prorogue the General Assembly of this Colony, to this Day.

By which Prorogation Capt. Alexander M'Dougall was enlarged, after a Confinement of three Months wanting three Days.

By the Packet came over his Majesty's Disallowance of Four Acts of the Legislature of this Province, since signified by a Proclamation from his Excellency the Governor and Council; these Acts were passed in December 1767, and 1768, and May 1769, and are,

An Act to declare the Extension of several Acts of Parliament made since the Establishment of a Legislation in this Colony, and not declared in the said Acts to extend to the Plantations.

An Act to impower Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Recorders, and Aldermen, to try Causes to the value of Ten Pounds and under, and for suspending an Act therein mentioned.

An Act for preventing Suits being brought in the Supreme Court of this Colony, for any Sums not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, for regulating Elections of Representatives in General Assembly, made and passed the Eight of May 1699, in the Eleventh Year of King William the Third.

A Gentleman that left Gibraltar the 11th of December acquaints us, That when he came away the Garrison of that Place consisted of Seven Regiments, and 400 of the Royal Regiment of Artillery, and that Three Regiments more were daily expected there from Ireland, but left only One Frigate in the Harbour, having sailed in Company with Capt. St. John, in the Edgar, of 64 Guns, bound for Lisbon, in order to get Cash to pay the Garrison; that the Spaniards had in the Neighbourhood of St. Roke, and Algazara, about Eight Miles from Gibraltar, between 20 and 30,000 Men; that he himself saw many Thousands of them, having obtained a Pass to go a few Miles into Spain, and that the most of the Spanish Troops were ordered to their Sea Ports, as they were apprehensive in Case of a Rupture with England, of being visited by a British Fleet.

The melting of the late Snow swelled many of the Rivers in this and the neighbouring Governments to such a Degree, that several Mill-Dams are broke down, and the Mills greatly damaged thereby.------At Peck's Kill in this Province, the Mills of Beverly Robinson, and Charles Moore, Esqrs, are entirely carried away, and some others on the same Stream received considerable Damage.

March 18. Captain Campbell, in 31 Days from Curacoa, informs us, that a large Dutch Ship that had been at Laguira with 900 Spanish Soldiers, had touched at Curacoa on her Way home, she having some Invalids, &c. to carry to Spain: She was chartered at 3000 Dollars per Month.

Wednesday last the Duke of Cumberland Packet, Captain Goodridge, sailed from hence with the Mail for Falmouth, with whom went Passengers, Capt. Monerief, of the 26th Regiment, and Mr. John Benezet, Merchant, of Philadelphia.

Extract of a Letter from St. Thomas's, dated February 6, 1771.

"The Spaniards at Porto-Rico, are making great Preparations for War; they have 3000 regular Troops, and 1000 Militia, doing Duty; their Fortifications are very strong, and they are transporting Cannon every Day, to the Bays where they think an Enemy will land: This Information I had from a Gentleman who belonged to the Factory, and was ordered to leave that Island about a Month ago: He left this Place Ten Days since for said Place; and on his Arrival there, wrote a Letter to the Governor, desiring Permission to go on Shore to settle his Business, as he had been lately made a Burger of Santa Croix. The Governor ordered him to depart the Port the next Day, by the Advice of the Attorney-General. This Gentleman sailed from Porto-Rico the First Instant in the Evening. Next Morning he met a Spanish Man of War going in, in which a Lieut. General was expected, and more Troops."

James Simpson, Esq; is sworn in Attorney-General of this Province, in the Room of the Honourable Egerton Leigh, Esq; gone for England.

Mr. John Cart, having resigned being one of the Wood and Coal Measurers, Mr. John Remington, jun. is appointed in his Room.

Friday last his Majesty's Packet-Boat Diligence, Captain Arthur Clark, arrived here from Pensacola.

"On the 6th ult. died, at his Plantation in Prince-William's Parish, aged 83 Years, Captain James Macpherson, a Native of this Province, who in the first Indian War, and at several other Periods since, served his Country with Honour and Reputation. As he was remarkable for his Honesty, Generosity, and Humanity, and more particularly for his Friendly Disposition, so his Death is universally regretted."
